ORAL ARGUMENTS ENGAGES COURT

Court of Appeals Listens to Argument Over Interest Paid by the Edgemont Coal Co.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 7.—(AP).—Oral arguments over $11,482.57 interest paid by the Edgemont Coal company for construction by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad company of a railroad track near Pineville engaged the Court of Appeals this morning.

Counsel for the coal company urged that too much interest was allowed by the judgment of the Bell Circuit Court. They prosecuted appeal of Charles S. Nield, Kentucky stockholder, to the higher court.

Interest was allowed from June 2, 1911, when it is alleged that the construction work for which the coal company was to pay was completed. The lower court held that Nield was responsible for other debts of the coal company.

In defense of the interest, counsel for the railroad company discussed interest charges from the days of Henry VIII of England when they were unlawful to the present day, maintaining that while interest formerly was considered a penalty, interest at present is considered "simple compensation for the use of money."

A side line of the arguments brought dissension f theo sale of the coal company, following construction of the spur, to F. M. Sackett of Louisville.

The railroad company's brief declared that Mr. Sackett on June 21, 1911, assumed all outstanding obligation for the property for $296,049.10, paying in cash $161,024.38.

PLAN ERECTION OF GRAND STAND

Col. Matt J. Winn, Manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club Expects to Erect New Building.

LATONIA, Ky., Nov. 7. (AP)—Erection of a grand stand, built on the present location of the sheds that house the mutuel machines, is planned by Col. Matt J. Winn, general manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club, for the Latonia course.

The machines will be replaced beneath the new stand and afford greater space for the players.

The season ended was considered generally remarkable from several standpoints: Chilowee's showing in making two records of world turf importance, Zev's thrilling finish when the star thoroughbred overtook two fillies at the wire for the greatest thrill of the season, and the appearance of Epinard, French thoroughbred, in the Third International Special.

In the money winners for owners, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt placed first with a total of $55,500, mostly due to Sarazen's efforts; Gallagher brothers were second with $36,535 and Desha Breckinridge of Lexington, Ky., third with $19,998.

Out of the 217 races run during the 31-day session, 88 favorites hit the wire first; 42 were won by second choices and 87 by outsiders. Twenty-seven won at odds on and 12 lost at odds on. The percentage of winning favorites during the meeting was 41.

Chilowee established a world track record for a mile in 1:38 4-5; and Zev came around later with a mile in 1:36 2-5. Having lost the honors at the mile, Chilowee tried a mile and six furlongs and a new time of 2:51 3-5 went on the books for a record.

Near Gale Whips Flames To Menacing Proportion

Nitro-Glycerine Plant In Irving Barely Escapes Being Fired.

IS UNDER CONTROL

Residents and School Boys Battle Devouring Element Much Standing Timber Suffers.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7. (AP)—Whipped to a menacing proportion by a near gale and coming when prolonged dry weather had reduced the brush grass to utterly dry condition, forest fires were raging in widely divergent points of Kentucky today.

A nitro-glycerine plant and 10,000,000 gallons of crude oil stored near Irving were apparently saved today when the fire in that direction was brought under control, according to information reaching the sheriff there.

Reports that seven homes were consumed is not verified but the residents and working men are known to have joined forces in attempting to extinguish the flames.

In western Kentucky, McLean county is hard hit. A number of farm houses and buildings are being destroyed. Towns of Island and Sacramento are threatened. The older school boys are being excused from classes in order to fight the flames. Orchards, fences and standing timber through section three by six miles near Louisville was destroyed. The fire near there is now believed to be under control.

MADISONVILLE, Nov. 7. (AP)—Only heavy rains can save the large wooded area of this section from the forest and field fires which have already done damage estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In Hopkins county the volunteer fire fighters of at least two sections worked all night to save the homes from destruction. But the orchards, fields and fences are hard hit.

KAZAN SUFFERING WITH MELANCHOLY

Once One of the Prosperous Cities, it is Now Ravaged by the Revolution.

KAZAN, Tartar Republic, Russia, Nov. 7. (AP)—Nowhere in Russia is the blighting influence of the Russian revolution seen more strikingly than in Kazan, capital of the newly created Tartar Republic and once one of the most prosperous cities in Europe. If death itself had overtaken the city, the ravages could not have been greater. The great factories are idle, the stores empty and abandoned, the homes are crumbling to ruins, and the people seem stricken with hopelessnes and despair.

The granite and bronze monuments to Alexander the Second and other historical figures of Russia have been wrecked and replaced with harsh Communistic figures of workmen. From all flagpoles the red flag of the revolution flies. To many it is only the grim reminder of the spiritual death of the city, which has been in Russia's possession since the days of Ivan the Terrible.

The commercial life of Kazan is at a standstill. Half the population, finding conditions intolerable have left for neighboring cities which promise a better existence. The roadways are so little used that grass and weeds are growing in the crevices between the paving stones. Many of the stores are either shuttered or windowless. The quantities of leather, soap, and candles wheat and othe rstaples which the city annually exported are but memories of its past greatnes. It now has nothing to export. It barely produces enough for its own maintenance.

The churches present an especially melancholy sight. They are in full process of decay. The clergy are too poor to repair them. Many of them have closed their doors. Others have been converted into Communistic clubs or barracks. The correspondent visited the largest of the churches, the famous Convent of the Virgin Mother, where mass was in progres. The priests and nuns were more numerous than the congregation that numbered exactly six persons.

Motor Trade Brisk In British Isles

LONDON, Nov. 6. (AP)—The withdrawal of the McKenna duties has not hurt the British motor trade, according to Sir John Simon who in a recent address said:

"Birmingham happens to be both the Mecca of tariff reform and the principal market for motor shares. Since the McKenna duties came off, Birmingham newspapers announced that the market in motor shares is very active, that the threatened foreign invasion is being met by a better article at a reduced price and that the British light car industry is well established. Gramophones tell a similar tale. Manufacturers, it was reported, were passing through a period was a similar prosperity in the piano trade, and a possible shortage of pianos."

The trophy committee will purchase the trophies this week and they will be on display in the Club House.

Britians Worry Over Tea Prices

LONDON, Nov. 7. (AP)—Things are bad enough as they are in England in the winter time, what with fogs and rain, coal smoke and unemployment, but to make matters worse the price of tea has gone up. And there is not any prospect that it will come down again.

This may seem like a small thing but to an Englishman it is serious. Just as much so as an increase in the price of a loaf of bread to a Frenchman.

The festival marked the end of this year's experiment.

"VANITY BOX" TO BE AT MANRING

This Comedy is Crowded with Syncopated Musical Numbers and Beautiful Dancers.

To any one with a taste for jazz music, and demon dancing, "VANITY BOX", George E. Wiatt's new musical comedy offering which comes to the Manring theatre Thursday, November 13th, is almost sure to provide a pleasing entertainment, for it is a musical show crowded with syncopated musical numbers, and unusually talented dancers, surrounded by a cast of some sixty odd performers.

A kings ransom is represented in the costly out lay of gorgeous gowns and costumes, while the scenic investure is a dazzling array of bewildering grandeur, being a continuous panorma of seemingly endless color, glitter, tinsel, and entrancing scenes, never before attempted by any traveling organization.

Among the leading artists will be found the French favorite Mitzi Sussi. The Ritzi Mitzi Girl—a comedienne whose vivacity is contagious, and whose personality is a distinct pleasure to behold. Broadways laughlander Hal Kiter. The perfect Nut has the leading comedy roles, and what he does to them will spell volumnes.

The company includes a number of wonderful dancers, while a chorus of "Radio Beauties" have a national reputation for speed and action, seldom if ever seen in musical comedy circles.

An added feature will be the world's famous Jazz Orchestra "The Pennsylvania Twelve" a jazz orchestra composed of twelve musicians, remembered by Radio listeners in" and also on Victrola records. This is probably one of the most expensive features ever carried by any traveling musical show. Seats are now on sale at Lee's Drug Store Middlesboro.

INCREASED BUILDING ACTIVITY IN AMERICA

That building operations in the United States, both for dwellings and business structures are rapidly catching up with the deficiency due to the high wages, high cost of materials ,and money scarcity of the war period, is shown by reports of the great number of buildings erected during the past season. Already there are evidences in many regions that the peak of high rents was recorded some time ago, and indications that the future course of rents will be either downward, or the equivalent, the providing of better accommodations at present rates.

Confronted with the possibility of numerous vacancies, the real estate interests recognize the need for meeting the demands of possible tenants, rather than to allow a great deal of space to remain idle, and are making concessions below the rates of a year or two ago. In the larger cities the offices for rent show a greater oversupply than do the dwellings, and the competition of great centrally located new buildings is leading to withdrawals of tenants from older and less favorably situated structures. This condition prompts the demolition of the antiquated buildings which are no longer attractive, and as money for building is abundant, the process of replacement of the bold buiioings by modern skyscrapers goes steadily onward.

The chief force, however, that urges forward construction of new buildings, is that almost ignored factor, the vacant lot, of which there are literally millions in the American cities, towns, and even villages. Mony of these lots are highly valuable because of their location and have been held out of use awaiting the time when growing population, and merely a trifle as a location for "taxpayer" structures or bill-demands of business, would make it possible to sell them at boards, and in most communities they have in the past been a profit. These lots, as a general rule, yield no income, or lightly assessed and taxed in comparison with fully improved property.

While taxes were moderate, the vacant-lot owner calculated that by holding his land idle the increased price he would ultimately receive would more than make up for the loss on interest and tax accounts. With the great advance in municipal taxes in all parts of the United States, the burden upon the vacant lot has been growing heavier, and the practice in many centers of population, notably in New York City, of assessing vacant lands at their real value, is forcing the owners of such lands either to build upon them or to sell them to someone who will build. The idle valuable lot, with an annual loss of interest on the money pair for it, and stiff tax charges, is a silent force at work constantly operating to stimulate building.—Christian Science Monitor.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

THAT the increasing amount of business being done by persistent advertisers is the best possible evidence that advertising pays.

THAT good advertising speaks louder and brings better results than any other selling method.

THAT common sense shows that nothing else but quality, well advertised, can account for the success of the persistent advertiser.

THAT advertising is the golden opportunity for every concern to increase its business.

THAT good advertising creates demand and the wise advertiser is changing the demand into dollars. Every business concern that hesitates to advertise is losing money every day.

THAT persistent advertisers build a reputation for giving values in both merchandise and service.

THAT selling well advertised quality lines is selling satisfaction.

THAT selling satisfaction brings volume and volume profits both the buyer and seller.

THAT the public buy carefully. They want goods of quality and reasonable prices.

BUSINESS CONCERNS, conscious of what the public demand, offer quality through the printed page, not once in a while, but all the while.

Think of Mother

On Monday mornings Mother shudders at the mountain of soiled clothing that must be done at the expense of hours of uninteresting, backbreaking toil. This drudgery so wears Mother out that for the rest of the week she is unable to enjoy the little social gatherings, visits with friends, and other diversions that make her life worth living.
The Federal Electric Washer will save Mother all this. It does the hard work, quickly, easily and quietly and in one-third of the time. All that is left for Mother to do is the easy, interesting part of direction and control. Prevents the waste of time, health and clothes entailed in the old fashioned way. Mother needs a Federal.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablets, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it is like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size, thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted. —Adv.

Easy Entertaining For Busy Women

You do not need a corps of trained servants in order to entertain leisurely. If you plan your planning when you buy the food, you can be an ideal hostess even though you are your own kitchen maid.

Food buying is probably the most important part of the modern housewife's work.

Too often foods are judged by price and not enough attention is paid to the quality and time saving features. Both are highly important and should be considered with especial care when the guests

Two good rules for the woman who would be an interesting carefree hostess are: Make sure of absolute high quality in all foods insisting on dependable brands, and keep on hand some of the approved foods all ready to serve. With these precautions observed, entertaining becomes truly enjoyable.

There is now so wide a variety of prepared foods on the market that it is an easy matter to make out an entire menu of unusually good things to eat which require practically no preparation within the home.

Delicious canned meats, boned chicken, or chicken a la king, meat loves, all varities of vegetables and fruits, besides relishes and cheese and other accompaniments purchased ready to serve, all cut down the number of hours formerly spent in cooking and give the housewife more time to enjoy her family or guests.

With a small emergency shelf supply ready for the unexpected occasions, a few suggestive menus all ready to chose from, the fear of unexpected guests is entirely allayed.

Questions Often Asked

Pimentos-Peppers

Question—Will you please give me canning directions for pimentoes also peppers, and will the same method be all right for both

Answer—The same methods are used in canning either. Place pimentos or peppers in very hot water until the skin cracks, then remove skin with a paring knife. Pack into cans or jars and fill with boiling water and seal. Sterelize at 212 degrees F, for eighteen to twenty minutes in cans, but if using jars, it requires a little longer—forty minutes. Salad oil may be used instead of the water to fill the jars.

Meringue

Question—What causes meringue on pies to fall when placed in the oven to bake? How can it be avioded?

Answer—Meringues should be baked in a slow oven from 250 degrees F. to 300 degrees F. and on pies or pudding should be baked from eight to ten minutes, depending on thickness. They should rise and be a delicate brown on the surface. If the oven is too hot the meringue will shrink and become tough; if too slow the egg whites will liquify nad the meringue settle.

TO TAKE TRADE TO KNOXVILLE

HARLAN, Ky., Nov. 7.—Following the overwhelming defeat of the state road bond issue by the opposition vote of central —and northern Kentucky, a movement is on foot among merchants and business men of eastern Kentucky so it is reported to withdraw trading with the wholesale houses of Louisville and Lexington, and to divert this trade to Knoxville, Tenn., and Cincinnati, Ohio.

One of the largest mining operations in the south cancelled an order for $150,000 recently given to a Louisville concern, and notified them not to expect any more orders from them. Others companies are doing the same thing. Girl Scouts Save Many Human Lives

Some of the reasons why the National Council Girl Scouts are appealing for public support were made public today when it was announced that during the past alone 395 members of that organization have rendered spontaneous acts of heroism or service. Sixteen others have saved human lives.

During the past year 53,313 Girl Scouts were awarded merit badges, each one representing actual mastery of some subject or activity. Last year 108 Scouts and seven officers attained the highest rank possible in the Girl Scout movement, that of Golden Eaglet. This means that they have passed twenty one merit badge examinations successfully, including a number of required courses, such as health, private and public citizenship, dressmaking, first aid, home making and home nursing, and child nursing. In addition a Golden Eaglet must have won a medal of merit by consistently maintaining over a considerable period a high standard of ideals, and must have the commendation of her superior officers for her general character and influence over other Girl Scouts.

Campaign headquarters have been established at 670 Lexington Avenue, New York City. The intensive New York campaign will be launched November 14th and will continue for ten days. Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank, is the campaign organizer.
